HELEN

Mrs. H. C. Burleigh.
Bath, Ontario.

Dear Sir: —

Mrs. Edwin McMillan, <sup>(Helen)</sup> a member of the U. E. L. Historic Society gave me your name and said you might be able to direct me to some one who might have some of the information I am trying to collect.
I have been working on a family tree - my ancestors on my mother's side of the family.
The name O'Flynn - I have traced back from "Irish Pedigrees" by O'Hart in the reference library, Toronto.

Edmond O'Flynn. (my Great Great Grandfather Parish of Ballyduff and Kiltmorden, Rathfriland, Ire, whose fathers ancestors were of lineal descends of the Provincial Kings of Ireland married -

Anastasia O'Donohue whose ancestors descended from the Great O'Donohues also Humphrey of Glenwill or Glenmore Castle, so called in ancient history, one of the noble lords of Ireland, (see Great Pedigrees) -
Their son John - (my Great Grandfather)

John O'Flynn - Born 1790.
School teacher, small farmer, of Prince Edward County. Ont. - married at 36 died Apr. 30 1863 - age 73.
married

Nancy Murdock - whose ancestors came from near Ayr Scotland, before the Revolution in 1754.
and settled in the Township of Fredericksburg Ontario - John & Nancy were married by the Rev John Staughton of Bath, Ontario - of the Church of England - May 26, 1826 - Nancy born
1805 died Apr 16, 1887 - age 82 -

Both John & Nancy buried at Madoc Ont.
John & Nancy had 12 children - the 8th - Thomas Humphrey O'Flynn - my Grandfather - born June 15 1841 - married - Margaret E. Lutman
2 children - my mother - Helen Blanche O'Flynn
John Lutman O'Flynn

both deceased - my mother died 1919 - (I was only 12 - I was too young to know of her back ground) at one time my <sup>3.</sup> mother must have been in Colborne Ontario, as I have a prayer book for attendance at Sunday school from Trinity Church, Colborne Epiphany 1890 -

I would be interested if I could find out when John O'Flynn settled in Canada and at what age he came here from Ireland - also - anything regarding his wife Nancy Murdock.

Does the Church of England, Bath Ont. have any records on the marriage certificate??

In Macroom, Ireland the remains of a Castle stands, built by the O'Flynn & is now owned by the people of Macroom. I have pictures it has been unoccupied for about 44 years.

Sam. Penn spent his childhood in Castle.
I have received a great deal of historical data from "The History of Ireland" by Edmund Curtis. & found it very interesting and have a copy of both family Crests - O'Flynn, and O'Donoghue.

This seems quite a long note to ask you for a little information regarding this.

The O'Flynn of Billerick, Madoc etc are all relatives most of the older ones dead. I wrote a John O'Flynn, Billerick but had no reply.

If you could suggest who I could find out from about the date that I am interested in I would greatly appreciate hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Helen Kaufschield

(Mrs. S.W.)

I might say - I am a daughter of Helen B.O'Flynn married to R. J. Garrett - My father died 1920 4 months after my mother & left 4 daughters -
2 living besides myself & married -
I might also say that I know that J.D.O'Flynn (my grandfather) was Justice of the Peace 1901 - in Evanston Wyoming - and wonder if he left his wife - or re-married or how he got to Wyoming. Have a letter written to my mother day she was married from him - ??
Mother brought up by E.D.O'Flynn - Madoc Ontario -

870. Claim of George Mordoff, late of Tryon Co.

Montreal, Sep. 26, 1787

Claimt. says:

He was at Oswego & Cataraugus in the Fall of '83 & during the Winter.

Is a native of Scotland. Went to America in 1773.

Settled in Tryon Co. joined Sir John Johnson in '80.

Staid as long as he could, tho. he gave all the assistance to the Loyalists & always declared his sentiments. Served in 2nd Battl. Continued till discharged.

Had 100 acres; bought a lease in the year 1773. It was a lease from Sir Wm. Johnson to Peter Young of 100 acres, Tryon Co., Kingsboro Patent forever, paying £6 pr. an. He gave £25 York for it. There were only 2 acres clear & a framed House. He cleared 26 acres afterwards and built barn. Vale. ye whole at 100 York. Lost a mare, 1 Heifer, taken by the Rebels. Cattle, farming utensils & some furniture.

Daniel Smiths, Wits:

Knew Claimt. He was always Loyal. Knew his Place. He bought it before the Troubles of Peter Young. There was not much clear before he bought it. He cleared a good Deal.

Marginal Note: Seems a good man.

CONNECTICUT GENERAL
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

Established
1865

HARTFORD 15, CONNECTICUT

ARCHIBALD C. WILSON, M. D.
MEDICAL DIRECTOR, REINSURANCE

Sunday Mar 17th

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

Thank you very much for your kind remarks about my genealogical efforts. I particularly appreciate the additional information which you sent me. It now appears that the information re the Mordoff family includes some unwarranted assumptions and conclusions.

Your prognostication that the additional information would keep me busy several evenings was quite correct. In addition, the library has been invaded several times. I was interested to learn that during the raid of May 1780, Sir John Johnson "arrived at the Johnston settlements, entirely undiscovered, during the night of May 21st". Your information indicates that George Mordoff and his son enlisted on the following day!

Do you happen to know the place and date of the "Petition of Sundry Soldiers etc"? vol B-58 Haldimand Papers. Since George Mordoff Jr enlisted 25 June 1782 and could hardly have done so anywhere else but in Canada, one would assume that he did so after the family was brought to Canada.

When I visited you, you mentioned an early census which indicated that George Mordoff had 2 girls over 10, two boys over 10, and a girl under 10, living with him.

I had jumped to the conclusion that this was Sir John Johnson's census of 1754. It now appears to have been in 1788 or later. Do you know the date?

I notice that the ages given in the Provision List of 4 Dec 1783 which you sent me, are in even years, or with either 6 or 9 months tacked on. Could this be a coincidence and quite factual, or do other names suggest that the ages were given as of the nearest attained quarter-year?

I can understand why George Jr does not appear as a dependent — he was already enlisted. Another child is necessary to make up the six. There was a Nancy. Perhaps she was too young to qualify for a ration in Dec 1783.

Dislike badgering you this way, but if you happen to have this information at hand, or know where it might be available, I would appreciate it very much.

Again many thanks,

Sincerely

Acad. Son

Bath, Ont., 25 March, 1957.

Dear Doctor Wilson:

This is in reply to your kind, querying letter of 17th Inst., and I note, with justification, that my recent letter was worth while.

I have this to add relative to Sir John's raid of May, 1780. It is taken from Brig.-Gen. Cruikshank's The King's Royal Regiment of New York, Ont. Historical Society's 'Papers & Records,' vol. XXVII, 1931.

"We arrived at the settlement, within five miles of Johnson Hall, on the 21st of last month, in the evening. . . . One Hundred and forty three Loyalists and a number of women and children, with about thirty Blacks, male and female, came off with us."

The first mention of Murdoffs in the Haldimand Papers, as I noted before, was the enlistment of George and James Murdoff, father and son, on 22 May, which was the day that Sir John actually entered Johnston during the raid. The next reference is a subsistence list from 25 Dec., 1781, to 24 Jan., 1782. This must mean that 'Agness Murdoff, her 3 sons over 6, 1 dau. over six and 2 dau. under six, must have arrived in Canada from New York between those two dates, likely accompanying one of the several parties returning from raids into the Mohawk Valley during the summer and fall of 1781.

I do not know the date of the 'Petition of Sundry Soldiers, etc.' This was undated, and is found in the Haldimand Papers, vol. B-158. It must have been between May, 1780 and Dec., 1781, likely early in 1781. Sorry that I cannot help you further. Perhaps the Public Archives, Ottawa, might help. It certainly was before George, Jr., enlisted in June, 1782.

The 'Return of Disbanded Soldiers & Loyalists Settled in Township No. 3 (Cataragui) Mustered 6 Oct., 1784' is the one in which Sergt. Murdoff is shown as having with him a wife, 2 sons over 10, 2 daus. over 10 and 1 dau. under 10. It is also noted that his family was then at Cataragui. Please recall also the 'Roll of Loyalists at and in the Dependencies of Cataragui, 4 Dec., 1783. This shows,

Ann Murdoff	41	years	0	months
John	11	"	6	"
Thos.	8	"	0	"
Margaret	6	"	6	"
Agnes	5	"	9	"

I have looked over the complete list and the ages are exactly as given. Some in the list show '9 years, 11 months; 32 years 1 month; 28 years 5 months; 9 years 7 mo.'

According to the instructions issued to Gen. Haldimand by London, all persons (Loyalists) over 10 were to receive a full ration; children under 10 had a half-ration. Thus Geo. Murdoff, wife, 4 children over 10, one child under 10 received 6 1/2 rations.

It is evident that George, Sr., & Nanny (Ann, Nancy, Agness) had these children: James, George Jr., Thomas, John, Margaret & Agnes, as the Haldimand Papers show. The other girl may already have been married in Dec., 1781, or she may have been too old to draw subsistence. In other words, a girl over 16 was often struck off the ration list because she was able to work. Likewise, she may have died before the arrival of Langhorn, the Missionary, and have been buried privately. The Provincial Archives, Toronto, Ont., can supply you with a list of the children of George Murdoff who drew lands as sons and daughters of a Loyalist. This might clear up the mystery of the missing daughter.

I hope that these notes answer your queries.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Burleigh:

I am again much indebted to you for your kindness in forwarding such a lot of highly interesting information, in response to my questions. I hope it didn't occasion too much inconvenience, beyond what is obvious.

On analyzing all of the data available to me, I have concluded that the Mordoffs line up about as follows.

- ① Arbitrarily placed here in the otherwise long childless gap between 1766 & 1772.
He was unmarried when she witnessed bro. John's marriage (Langhorn) in 1796.
We also require a daughter "over six" in Dec 1781 and two daughters "over ten" in Oct 1784
- ② This checks with loyalist list which says "is come of age 1793"
- ③ Burial record of April 1845 says died aged 70. (perhaps <sup>actually</sup> "in 70th yr")
Perhaps promoted a year for ration purposes in 1784.

I don't know whether I mentioned it to you but my father owns an island in Hay Bay which appears on early maps as Hare Island.

In some years we have been picking up pieces of Indian pottery which the Royal Ont. Museum says is from 800 to 2000 years old.

Mother tells me that they have discovered what gives every appearance of being a sizeable burial mound, in the wooded part of the island. We have always referred to this pottery as belonging to "Lo" (Lo, the poor Indian, whose untutored mind etc) So this summer we expect to see whether we can find any remains of Lo, in this pile of gravel. If I'm not careful I'll have his last name for sure!

Many thanks for all of your helpful information and comments

Sincerely

Re Wilson

To-day I met a man named Quackenbush <sup>from Florida</sup>. He tells me that his family originated near Patterson N.Y., went to the Mohawk Valley at some period, and that his grandfather (the last of a long line of Peters) went to Florida from Ontario. He understands that all of the Quackenbushes in North America are descendants of a common ancestor who came to New York with Peter Stuyvesant. This was about all that he knew since he did not appear to have more than a passing interest in such matters. He did ask me whether I knew that the name originally ended in "bos." — So I told him that possibly his grandfather had been part of the May Bay family. The grandfather went to Florida from Kemptville Ont.

You may recall that I mentioned that a couple of local Forbushes went to Dresden Ont about 1875. (see p 30.)
My bro-in-law was passing through there a few days ago + talked to one of them on the phone.
A George Forbush (son of John who I believe to have been a son of Alexander H., the son of Bernard) is still around at age 93. They seemed to know little about their ancestors aside from the fact that they came from "near Kingston" and apparently they cared even less!

Dr. A. C. Wilson,
Medical Director,
Connecticut General Life Insurance Company,
Hartford 15, Connecticut, U. S. A.

Dear Dr. Wilson:

We have your letter of August 13th.

Our land and U.E.L. records contain some references to members of the Mordoff (or Murdoff) family, though they do not give all the information you require.

An entry dated 18 November 1797 in Upper Canada Land Book C (published in the Ontario Archives Report, 1931) reads: "Margaret Murdoff. Praying for lands as a loyalist. Recommended for 200 acres as a U.E. Loyalist." A fiat of the same date states that this grant was made, but unfortunately does not give the location of the land.

Our U.E.L. book (compiled from various sources in the Archives) lists the following as the family of George Murdoff of Fredericksburg, Sergeant in the King's Royal Regiment of New York:

Daughter, Nancy, married Happa Farris Goodsell of Fredericksburg, November 22, 1800. O.C. 28 February 1799.

Son, John of Fredericksburg. O.C. 8 July 1801 and 28 February 1835.

(?) Daughter, Catharine, married John McCall of Murray. O.C. 28 October 1835.

Daughter, Lucy, married James Russell, Storrington.

Son, George of Fredericksburg.

Son, Thomas of Fredericksburg.

You will notice that there are differences between this list and the one which you give, but it is possible that our list is incomplete.

We have fiats which show that Nancy Mordoff, daughter of George Mordoff, U.E., was granted 200 acres of land on 28 February 1799, and that John Murdoff, child of George Murdoff, U.E., was granted 200 acres on 8 July 1801. We have not been able to find the location of the land.

Yours very truly

M. A. Banks

Dear Dr. Barclay :

Under separate cover I am sending you a photostatic copy of the 1836 map which I mentioned to you last summer. Considering the condition of the original, they did quite a remarkable job on it.

On dragging out my Mordoff project a while ago I was chagrined to find that I have not acknowledged nor thanked you for the most interesting and informative data regarding George Mordoff Sr. as revealed by his Loyalist Claim, which you so kindly sent me last summer. I wrote to the Dept. of Public Records & Archives, as you suggested. They have advised me that under date of 18 Nov 1797 is an entry "Margaret Mordoff. Praying for lands as a Loyalist. Recommended for 200 acres as a U.E. Loyalist". A list of the same date states that this grant was made, but does not give the location of the land.

I'll have my secretary type out the balance of their reply for you.

I doubt very much that the Catherine which they list was a child of Geo. Mordoff Sr. We had the proper number of boys + girls (to a total of six) to fit all of the provision lists, census reports etc which you dug up for me, and without any Catherine.

Have you ever heard of the place - "Stonington"? or "Murray"?

Regarding the application for the U.E.L. Ass'n. - instructions on top of second page.

Is it intended that the dates and places of birth etc be incorporated in the answers to the questions that follow or is one supposed to write a separate report documenting or stating the authority for the claimed relationship to the Loyalist ancestor?

My mother's g.g. grandfather was a Loyalist man, — a soldier in the N.S. Volunteers. Should I list him also?

On the third page of the application. I don't get the point of the second and third lines. How could this great grandparent help but be of U.E.L. descent? Or are you supposed to list all of your g. grandparents, specifying the ones of Loyalist descent? Who is the "him or her" - the Loyalist ancestor?
I suppose that all of this is crystal clear if you know the point of the question, but I don't seem to be able to fathom it.

Could I ask one more favour? Does your 1808-09 Tax list for Fredericksburg indicate the Bro. Mordoff Sr was still alive?

All of us enjoyed your visit so much. We look forward to another such affair next summer, and without the "Fenian Raid" to which you were unfortunately subjected. We had quite a time stomaching him for the next five days!

Our best regards to your very nice wife

Sincerely

Arch W. Don

Dr. A. C. Wilson,
Hartford, Conn., U.S.A.

Dear Doctor Wilson,

I am deeply ashamed of myself for my delay in replying to your letter of 24 Sept. last. I have plenty of excuses, mainly illness, which I hope you will accept. To begin, I developed some sort of indigestion, or what have you, about Aug. 20. This consisted of flatulence, distress in epigastrium, and a wish that I had not eaten. This continued, even though Mrs. B. and I had planned a trip to Cape Cod. Rather than disappoint her we left home about 1st Sept. I stopped in Albany for a few days in the library, but did not enjoy it. On one of these days I noticed one tarry stool. This worried me, so we took a quick glance at Cape Cod, then turned for home, passing through your city in haste. On my return to home I entered K. G. Hospital, where I had barium meal and enema. The only diagnosis was that I had a hypersensitive stomach - everything looked normal. So, I have been playing along with amphetol, atropine and milk between meals ever since.

Murdoff, George, aged 43 yrs, on Oct. 12, while at the breakfast table over a cigarette, I coughed and experienced a sharp pain in my back. The next morning I had an aching buttock and anterior thigh. The following day I had numbness over the knee cap, with aching along the shin. A few days later I was again in Hospital for ten days of traction on both legs which nearly killed, and which did not seem to be of much value because I still have a weak leg with some aching and some tenderness on pressure or movement. I wear a corset with braces and get along not too badly. Some day I suppose I shall become so disgusted that I will submit to surgery. In the meantime I am going slowly and carefully about my business.

In filling out your application for membership in the Bay of Quinte Branch, U. E. L., you show yourself and your parents, with dates as you have them. After that it is only necessary to supply the names of grandparents and the Loyalist years. Your line would be yourself, your father (naming your mother), your grandfather Wilson (with wife), your great-grandfather Wilson with wife, Jeannette Forshee, your great-great-grandfather James Forshee and wife Margaret Murdoff, and finally your third great-grandfather, George Murdoff (with wife). As you will see, there is no need to follow ancestral lines which are not U. E. L., although if you wish to do so, it will be alright to do it.

On my last trip to Ottawa I scanned the War Office Papers, which supplied some Murdoff ages. In a list of soldiers in the 2nd Batt. K. R. R. N. Y. there are the following:

Murdoff, George	aged 43 yrs	5 ft. 9½ ins	born in North Britain	3 yr. service
" " Jr	" 13	4 " 8	" " " " Old England	9 mo. "
" James	" 17½	5 " 6½	" " " " No. Britain	3 yr. "

This list is not dated, but follows one dated 21 Jan., 1783.

Fredericksburgh Tax List, 1808.

Murdoff, George	150 ac. uncult.	50 ac. cultivated	2 horses,	2 cows.

Let me again apologize for my delay, and let me wish Mrs. Wilson and yourself the compliments of the season. And let's have your application before New Years.

This list is not dated, but follows one dated

Dear Doctor:

We are sorry indeed to learn that you have been having such a rough time of it and hope that things are showing some improvement. I think that you are probably wise not to hurry into any surgery. Down here at least they seem to be taking a more conservative approach and give these things a good long trial on a non surgical basis before intervening.

It is a disappointment to us to find that circumstances dictated such a hurried trip through Hartford. We would have been delighted to have seen you and your good wife and shown you around a bit. As I think I told you we have ~~an~~ an excellent Historical Society and library which has been accumulating and acquiring since 1925.

Thank you so much for the additional Mundy data. It now appears that George De was born in 1740 which is very close to what I had estimated. I was even closer on James. I had estimated George Jr at 1766 rather than 1770, largely because I had figured that he would have been 16 on enlistment in 1782 rather than a bit over 12.

I am particularly glad to establish George Jr's age for the following reason. You may recall that in my ~~former~~ investigations I conceded <sup>that the</sup> one discordant note in identifying James and John Forshue with the individuals <sup>of the same names</sup> baptised in Tappan N.Y. in 1769 and 1771, was the fact that in the July 1812 muster roll these men claimed to be 45 and 43 years old rather than 43 & 41. I had recognized that they might not have been very ardent militiamen, and could have been anxious to be overage as soon as possible. Now I notice that George Murdoff who was also listed as 45 in July 1812, was actually only 42 or 43. Either the ages on the muster roll weren't very accurate, or these fellows were all playing the same game.

We were in Delaware a couple of weeks ago, one of our chief objectives being the Henry Francis DuPont Winterthur Museum. Probably the finest collection of American furniture and interior decoration (1640-1840) <sup>china, glass, silver</sup> anywhere. On our way back we went to Tappan N.Y. I had never been there. The site of the original church is now occupied by the Sunday School room of the present church (which is about 150 yrs old). A delightful colonial interior, painted white of course, with the original box pews. When I told the young fellow showing us around of my interest in the place he struck out his hand and said "Well my name's Bemarest, I guess that's the best thing." The oldest stones in the churchyard had gone and there were few readable ones prior to about 1800. The place was absolutely loaded with Bemarests, Harrings, Blauvelts, Bogarts, Loziers, Perrys, Quackenbushes and a dozen other familiar names. The Schraalenburg Church (founded 1723) is five miles south at Diamond N.J. and the stones there were just the same. The later ones were in Dutch and very quaint with their "geborens" and "begraevens". We had a very nice dinner in a "Public House" built in 1750 and saw the room where Maj. John André was held a prisoner prior to his trial and execution. The monument on the site of the latter, carried inscriptions which constituted almost an apology — commending him as a fine officer & gentleman, trapped by the rules of war, and equally mourned by both sides etc.

While in Wilmington Del. we also visited Old Swedes Church (now Episcopal) built in 1698 and said to be the oldest church in the country in continuous use, in its original condition.

Am enclosing application for membership in the U.E.L. Association which I trust is in order.

I have sent my sister Dorothy the other copy but frankly I don't know whether she'll file it. She claims that she's "damned sick and tired of hearing about ancestors". I don't know - she must have been adopted or something! Still appreciate very much having you take care of my application.

Hope you have a pleasant Christmas, and our best regards to Mrs B.

Sincerely
Arch. Wilson
